of Canadian short films!

Code 13

Joseph, a solitary and morose Montreal cab driver, reluctantly agrees to a double shift, during which he has a troubling encounter with a cyclist.

Dust Bowl Ha! Ha!

After the local factory shuts down, a dejected blue collar worker is forced to grapple with being unemployed, maintaining his dignity in front of his family and his own despairing thoughts.

Farmer's Requiem

A meditative documentary about the gradual disappearance of farming culture using striking time-lapse photography and poignant narration.

The Bumblebee Man

Royalty and a proper heir are at stake for the English bumblebee King in search of his Queen. Tragedy, treason, drugs and love guide this ingenious tale of an Empire's fate.

Les Grands (The School Yard)

Stolen lunches and violent threats are daily events endured by three classmates in this compelling schoolyard drama.

I Have Seen The Future

While playing a casual summer game of tennis in Calgary South, a father and son are relentlessly antagonized by three young troublemakers.

Terminus

Urban alienation is stylishly explored in this nightmarish comedy about a man tormented by a large-scale urban entity.

I Met The Walrus

In 1969, fourteen-year old Jerry Levitan snuck into John Lennon's Toronto hotel room and convinced him to do an interview which became the soundtrack to this visually dazzling animated short.
