

shutter 2 think

film festival

Co-presenting with imagineNATIVE Film + Media Arts Festival

Shutter 2 Think and imagineNATIVE present

The First Take

films by Aboriginal Canadian Filmmakers

This selection of outstanding and award-winning documentary, drama, comedy and experimental films reflects the vitality and excellence of Canada's Indigenous media artists.

Founded in 1988, Toronto's imagineNATIVE Film + Media Arts Festival is recognized as one of the most important Indigenous film and media arts festivals in the world.

Friday, Jan 30th
REM Lee Theatre

7:30
PM

admission
by donation

The Vanishing Trace

Keesic Douglas

An intimate search for Aboriginal identity in the modern world takes a confessional tone in this beautifully crafted short.

Ponassium

Marco Bentz, Carl Grégoire, Francis Grégoire, Spencer St. Onge, Jean-Christopher Gabriel, James Chescappin

A story of unity and modern ideals on the rez set to a driving rhythm in this catchy music video..

Rezolution

Keesic Douglas

Over coffee in a Rez diner, a man and a woman unravel their hilariously interconnected lives in this smart, talky comedy.

INDIAN

Darryl Nepinak

The classic Spelling Bee, 'Rez style'!

Palace

Richard Story

Lorne Cardinal stars as a shattered man slowly trying to recover and get a grip on an increasingly elusive reality in this sophisticated thriller..

One-Eyed Dogs Are Free

Zoe Leigh Hopkins

When a ship is lost at sea in the remote community of Waglisla (Bella Bella) a young man must come to terms with the death of his father. A visually-stunning portrait about the impact of grief on a small community.

Mémère Métisse (My Métis Grandmother)

Janelle Wookey

For over sixty years, grandmother Cecile St. Amant has been keeping a deep secret — she is Métis. Cecile's granddaughter, Janelle sets out to understand her Mémère's denial and playfully plots her own mission to open her Mémère's eyes to the richness of their heritage.

I'm Not the Indian You Had in Mind

Thomas King

Thomas King explores the stereotypical portrayal of First Nations in the mainstream media and offers insight into how Indigenous people today are changing old ideas and empowering themselves.

Tree

Shelley Niro

Personifying Mother Earth, a woman walks through her domain, observing her environment and what has happened to it. Featuring Lena Recollet.

The Making of a Haida Totem Pole

Kelvin Redvers

Don Yeomans is a contemporary Haida carver who was commissioned by the Vancouver Airport Art Foundation to make two 40 foot totem poles for the airport. The poles are a mix of unique color, tradition and cultures.

Dragonfly

Terry Haines

The vulnerability of mankind is framed against the degraded and unstable environment he has helped create.

Nikamowin (Song)

Kevin Lee Burton

A thought-provoking and visually beautiful short that transforms a Cree narrative into a linguistic soundscape.

www.shutter2think.ca

Shutter 2 Think is a not for profit collective supporting media education in the Terrace area

Canada Council for the Arts

Conseil des Arts
du Canada

Terrace Art Gallery

Terrace
Art Gallery